

Cognitive Thinking

After reading NEVER HIT GIRLS up to Little Marlon's father telling Little Marlon what he had to do, have the student answer these questions by writing them. As an addition or alternative, you can engage the student in a discussion about each question.

1. What did Kimberly do when she got home?
2. How did she feel?
3. What did she think about Little Marlon?
4. If she could do something different, what do you think she would do?
5. What did Kimberly say to her parents?
6. What did Kimberly's parents say to her after she gave them the news?
7. How did Kimberly feel when her parents took her to Little Marlon's house?
8. What do you think Kimberly thought when Little Marlon's father told her his plan?
